

For over 30 years, Forgotten Harvest has fought two problems: hunger and waste.

Throughout the Metro-Detroit area, Forgotten Harvest rescues food surpluses from grocery stores, markets, restaurants, and more. We take the food, which would otherwise go to waste, and deliver it free-of-charge to over 200 emergency food providers in the Metro Detroit area.

Food insecurity can impact anyone, in any community at any time. If you or someone you know is in need of food, Forgotten Harvest is here for you and you are not alone.

To find the food distribution closest to you, please visit our website at www.forgottenharvest.org and click on the “Find Food” link or scan the QR code below. You can also call us at: 248-967-1500.

In Macomb, Oakland, and Wayne counties, 589,000+ people live in poverty – including 197,000+ children and nearly 55,000 seniors. That’s why Forgotten Harvest is dedicated to relieving hunger in metro Detroit and preventing nutritious food waste.
